NEW YORK, AUGUST 30, 1867.—DEAR SIR—WE, THE undersigned, wish to say a few words in regard to the mew building that fell in Twenty second street on the evening of the 28th mst. The buildings were owned by us, who performed the carpenter's part of the work, so far as the progress of the buildings would allow, in a complete and cubstantial manner. The mason work was being performed by Mr. Thomas Cockerill, who, as a mason of experience, had and still retains our confidence, notwithstanding this accident; and, further, that we spared no expense as owners to make the buildings what they were intended to be, good and aubstantial work, as the uninjured building will prove to any person acquainted with building affairs. It as also been said that there was one man injured. We are appy to state that such is not the case.
